Graduation Exercises Event of This Afternoon—Sixteen Win Diplomas.

A picturesque event of this afternoon was the graduation exercises of the Margaret Eaton School. When the many guests were seated in the auditorium, the curtains were pulled back revealing the sixteen young graduates in lovely long white frocks, carrying bouquets of bright flowers, which also barked the platform, and singing the school song, "Land of Our Birth."

Bishop Sovereign, of Peace River, Bishop of Athabasca, gave the invocation, and his daughter, Miss Ellen Sovereign, read the valedictory address. Then followed two numbers by the school Glee Club, under the direction of Miss Nadina Yaaye, after which the address of the afternoon was given by Dr. H. J. Cody, president of the University of Toronto.

Miss Florence Somers presented the gold medal for highest standing to Miss Netta Morrison, of London; the Charlotte Kaulbach silver medal for general proficiency to Miss Louise Proctor of Toronto, and diplomas to Miss Vernona Brigiden, Winnipeg; Miss Margaret Dunning, Toronto; Miss Marion Glenwright, Edmonton; Miss Phyllis Hammill, Winnipeg; Miss Helen Hurd, Miss Eleanor Keyes, of Toronto; Miss Blanche Logie, Edmonton; Miss Isabel Love, Winnipeg; Miss Dorothy Lowman, Toronto; Miss Barbara McArd, Sydney, N.S.; Miss Netta Morrison, London; Miss Louise Proctor, Miss Muriel Sinclair, Toronto; Miss Hilda Smith, Winnipeg; Miss Ella Sovereign, Peace River, and Miss Mary Steedman, of Lethbridge.

The Rev. G. O. Fallis, who acted as chairman, addressed the graduating class briefly.

Tea was served in the lounge where the graduates received their many friends. The prettily arranged tea table was presided over by Mrs. E. M. Gonsaulis and the juniors of the school assisted in looking after the guests.

CODY HOPES FOR GYM FOR 'VARSITY WOMEN

"We have a substantial hope that we shall be able to erect a gymnasium for the women students of the whole University of Toronto," Canon H. J. Cody, president of the University of Toronto, told members of the graduating class of Margaret Eaton school.

Miss Ellen Sovereign, daughter of Rt. Rev. A. H. Sovereign, bishop of Athabasca, delivered the valedictory address to her 15 classmates as her father sat on the platform behind her. The gold medal for highest standing was won by Netta M. Morrison, and the Charlotte A. Kaulbach silver medal for general proficiency, leadership and service to the school by Naida L. Wright Proctor.

The graduates were: Hazel V. Brigiden, Margaret M. Dunning, Marion H. Glenwright, Phyllis J. Hammill, Helen M. Hurd, Elizabeth B. Logie, Isabel M. Love, Dorothy V. Lowman, Netta M. Morrison, Naida L. Wright Proctor, Hilda I. Smith, Ellen Fearnought Sovereign, Frances M. Steedman, Mary E. Keyes, Barbara E. McArd, Annie M. Sinclair.

The Wheel of Fortune spun again, and again she stopped at M.E.S. when she brought nineteen juniors to the class of '38. From near and far they come as usual, but this year there are more from the eastern provinces and from Toronto. Starting with Phyllis Dean from Sydney, Nova Scotia, we pick up Gwyneth Schenk at Halifax; Marjorie Leonard at Saint John; Rosemond (Bud) Crocker at Newswistle, N.B.; and Margaret Jess at Quebec City. From Ontario, near at hand, we have Muriel Melles, Ottawa; Margaret Quance, Delhi; Rose Eves, Newmarket; and Margaret Allen, Peggy Anderson, Holly Dallas, Rose Levy, Marjorie Martin and Jean Thomas; all of Toronto. Going westward we find Helen Plaut from Sudbury; Lillian Glahn (Doris's sister) and Phyllis Goodfellow, Fort William; Laura Kwan, Edmonton; and Leta Mellicke (Dorothy's sister), Vancouver; nineteen young stalwarts in all.

Staff and students have had a marvellous month at Camp Tanamookoon, with the air crisp and bracing, the trees a gorgeous scarlet and now and then a little red fox, or two or three deer to keep them company. They are returning to the city on Saturday, October 3rd. Miss Somers, Miss Wardley and Miss Jackson have all been there, with Eleanor Keyes '36, assisting; Miss May Livingstone of Barrie, as nature study teacher; Miss Helen Couch, nurse; and Miss Flora Gray, pianist.

Just as we go to press we have received an application from Betty Burns of Ottawa. Although she has a month of camp work to make up, she will be able to start the course in the city with the others. And she makes the twentieth junior!

We extend our sympathy to Muriel Sinclair '36 and her family in the death of Mrs. Sinclair on Saturday, September 19th,

March, 1937

To close the figure skating season, the students gave a half-hour demonstration of singles, showing forward spirals, bunny jumps, aquat rides, spread eagle; couples, backward and forward spirals, spread eagle and spiral; waltzes and ten steps in couples and groups. The last half of the demonstration was given by skaters from the Granite Club, Miss Eleanor O'Hearn, Canadian Ladies Senior Champion 1936, Miss Eleanor Wilson, Club, Miss Eleanor O'Hearn, Canadian Ladies Senior Champion 1936, Miss Mary Ecclestone, Miss Ruth Paul and Miss Canadian Ladies Junior Champion, 1935, Miss Mary Ecclestone, Miss Ruth Paul and Miss Marion Lumbers. Eleanor Keyes '36, who has taught the figure skating this year, was in charge of the demonstration.

The formal school dance was held at the Eglinton Hunt Club on February 4th and everyone says it was grand! The orchestra was excellent, the supper was delicious and the general surroundings were so attractive that no one could help having a good time, especially as the men were all particularly nice, so they say. And of course the girls looked "just too pretty for words". Mrs. C. E. Burden and Mrs. R. Y. Eaton were patronesses with Miss Somers, and Greta Burden Smith was also there.

Luncheon on March 10th

The Diet Kitchen with a cozy fire and an excellent menu was the chosen rendezvous for the March meeting. A financial report was given showing a deficit of some Sixty dollars, owing to the scholarship fund. Audrey Michel Jeffrey moved that the scholarship be discontinued for the present, due to the difficulty of raising sufficient funds at the present time, and with the hope that at not too distant a time it can be resumed again. The motion was seconded by Margaret Henderson. Jane Ferguson moved this news should go into the news letter. It was seconded by Theo Pike Day. In order to combat the present deficit, Dona Smellie moved that a bridge and subscription should be held. This motion was seconded by Louise Dewar.

Engagements:

Phyllis White to Mr. Robert Fraser of California. They are to be married in June.
Margaret Henderson to Mr. Walter Le Count Farr of Cincinnati, Ohio. Their marriage is to take place next fall.
Isobel Brown to Bill Shirtin of Dunnville. They are planning an early summer wedding.
Vera Williams to Dr. J. P. Miller, Charlottetown, P.E.I. The wedding will be some time in June.
Peggy Pringle to S. C. Burnet. They are to be married in June.

Marriages:

Louise Proctor to Mr. R. C. Hooper. Her address is The Retreat, Anebury, Wilt. England.
Gertrude Henderson to Mr. Edward Brereton Jr. The marriage took place last September. Address- 307 Winthrop St. Brooklyn, N. Y.
Joyce Withrow to Mr. Harry Henderson, during the Christmas season. They are living at 237 St. Clements Avenue, Toronto.

To Betty Snell and her Badminton partner, for winning the Ontario Ladies Doubles, and for doing so well in the Canadian Championships at Vancouver in March.

To Molly Mew and Leone Seagram for their parts in the movie taken at Bignin Inn last summer.

Ellie Sovereign is to teach at Haverhill College next year, and for the summer is to have charge of the girls' work on the playgrounds at Wards Island.

JUNE, 1937

Marjorie Culbert, '29 has been appointed to the staff of the Montreal Y.W.C.A. where she is to have charge of swimming and in addition will teach some gymnastics classes.

Jane Ferguson, '29 is to be Social Hostess at Camp Franklin this summer and will teach at Willard Hall in the fall.

Nora Gould, '34 has been appointed to the staff of the Northern Vocational School, Toronto.

Margaret Gurd, '35 is again teaching summer sports at the Hermitage Club, Magog, Que.

Eleanor Keyes, '35 is to be Swimming Instructor at the Eaton Girls Club next fall.

Elizabeth Jarvis, '35 has been appointed to the staff of the Bishop Strachan School as assistant physical director.

Winifred McEvoy, '35 is chaperoning a party of Branksome students on Major May's overseas tour this summer.

Kathleen Pepler, '28 physical director of the Y.W.C.A. in Cairo, Egypt, is spending her holidays in England where her mother hopes to join her.

Peggy Pringle, '34 was the guest of honour at a handkerchief shower given by Betty Gilchrist and Winifred McEvoy recently. She is to be married on the 26th of June.

Flora Secord, '34 has been appointed to the staff of the Quebec Y.W.C.A.

Ruby Thomas, '34 had a cup and saucer shower recently for Isabel Brown '33 and Peggy Pringle '34.
